

Imagine a closely-knit group of talented and motivated students working in small classes and individualized study with outstanding professors.

Envision a diverse learning environment that promotes your success not only in the classroom, but beyond it through involvement in the community, international study programs, and academic and career advising customized to your interests.

THE UNIVERSITY OF Tennessee

Honors Programs
www.acad.utk.edu/honors

Picture the University Honors Program at the University of Tennessee, a vibrant center of learning, leadership, and service at one of the nation's major research universities.

